

KATY HOLMES TRUST - GDPR POLICY

Introduction

The Katy Holmes Trust needs to collect and use certain types of information about the Data Subjects who come into contact with it in order to carry on our work. This personal information must be collected and dealt with appropriately– whether on paper, in a computer, or recorded on other material - and there are safeguards to ensure this under the Data Protection Act 1998.

The EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), came into force on 25 May 2018 and regulates the regulation of the collection, storage, and use of personal data significantly more strictly. This policy has been amended to ensure we are up to date to current practices.

The following list below of definitions of the technical terms we have used and is intended to aid understanding of this policy.

- Data Controller – The person who (either alone or with others) decides what personal information The Katy Holmes Trust will hold and how it will be held or used.
- Data Protection Act 1998 – The UK legislation that provides a framework for responsible behaviour by those using personal information.
- GDPR Officer – The person(s) responsible for ensuring that it follows its data protection policy and complies with the Data Protection Act 1998
- Data Subject/Service User – The individual whose personal information is being held or processed by The Katy Holmes Trust (for example: a trustee, volunteer or a supporter)
- ‘Explicit’ consent – is a freely given, specific and informed agreement by a Data Subject (see definition) to the processing* of personal information* about her/him. Explicit consent is needed for processing sensitive* data *See definition
- Notification – Notifying the Information Commissioner about the data processing activities of The Information Commissioner – The UK Information Commissioner responsible for implementing and overseeing the Data Protection Act 1998.
- Processing – means collecting, amending, handling, storing or disclosing personal information
- Personal Information – Information about living individuals that enables them to be identified – e.g. name and address. It does not apply to information about organisations, companies and agencies but applies to named persons, such as individual volunteers within The Katy Holmes Trust.

Sensitive data – means data about:

- Racial or ethnic origin
- Political opinions
- Religious or similar beliefs
- Trade union membership
- Physical or mental health
- Sexual life
- Criminal record
- Criminal proceedings relating to a data subject's offences

Disclosure

The Katy Holmes Trust may share data with other agencies such as the local authority, funding bodies and other voluntary agencies.

The Data Subject will be made aware in most circumstances how and with whom their information will be shared. There are circumstances where the law allows The Katy Holmes Trust to disclose data (including sensitive data) without the data subject's consent.

These are:

1. Carrying out a legal duty or as authorised by the Secretary of State
2. Protecting vital interests of a Data Subject or other person
3. The Data Subject has already made the information public
4. Conducting any legal proceedings, obtaining legal advice or defending any legal rights
5. Monitoring for equal opportunities purposes – i.e. race, disability or religion
6. Providing a confidential service where the Data Subject's consent cannot be obtained or where it is reasonable to proceed without consent: e.g. where we would wish to avoid forcing stressed or ill Data Subjects to provide consent signatures.

The Katy Holmes Trust regards the lawful and correct treatment of personal information as very important to successful working, and to maintaining the confidence of those with whom we deal.

The Katy Holmes Trust intends to ensure that personal information is treated lawfully and correctly.

To this end, The Katy Holmes Trust will adhere to the Principles of GDPR, as detailed in the Data Protection Act 1998.

The Katy Holmes Trust will, through appropriate management, strict application of criteria and controls:

- Observe fully conditions regarding the fair collection and use of information,
